Approximately 31 miles from the Port of Cagliari and from Elmas Airport in southern Sardinia, is Villasimius, one of the most sought-out resort localities on the Mediterranean. It is rather well-known for its concentration of singular, golden-white beaches, transparent water, intense perfumes of the myrtle plant, of juniper and Scotch broom, and for its accommodation of every type of tourist.

Villasimius’s urban center – just under a mile from Simius Beach - boasts an archaeological museum and a touristic port, and its summer calendar is an annual explosion of music, folkloristic and enogastronomic festivals.
The Marina of Villasimius is located in the Capo Carbonara Protected Marine Area amidst stretches of sandy beaches, on Sardinia’s southeast coast, in a unique village in all of the Mediterranean. The coastline between Villasimius and Cagliari offers breathtaking views: white sand beaches, crystal-clear bays and promontories covered with lush vegetation. You can easily choose a different beach every day.

All of the Marina’s moorings are equipped with hookups for water and electricity. The facility’s fuel station is open every day from 8 am to 8 pm. The entire port area has Wi-Fi access and the shipyard offers assistance and storage all year round for boats up to 20 metres in length. The Marina also has a shopping area featuring numerous businesses, including a bar, ice cream shop, newsstand, tobacconist, laundry, grocery shop, ship chandler, perfume shop, sports and nautical apparel shops and companies offering car, scooter and rubber dinghy rentals. In the summer a shuttle service to the town and the area’s most beautiful beaches is available, running approximately every 20 minutes from and to the port.

This stunning territory is an example of integration between tourism and respect for the landscape and the port is considered one of the best marinas of the world. In addition to relaxing in the sun and being lulled by the waves, visitors can enjoy the area’s many different activities, the reserve’s amazing flora and fauna and discover that in Villasimius, nature and enjoyment are imbued with the sea.
